

|                                 |                        | Stainburn Moor additions                         |                         |
|---------------------------------|------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Species                         | Associated organism    | Substrate                                        | Notes                   |
| Alutaceodontia alutacea         | Conifer                | decort, decayed log                              |                         |
| Amphinema byssoides             | Conifer                | rotten log fragment                              |                         |
| Aphanobasidium pseudotsugae     | Pinus                  | rotten log                                       |                         |
| Botryobasidium candicans        | Betula                 | rotten log                                       |                         |
| Botryobasidium subcoronatum     | indet.decid.           | rotten log                                       |                         |
| Calocera viscosa                | Conifer                | rotten stump                                     |                         |
| Chalciporus piperatus           | Fagus/Amanita muscaria | soil                                             |                         |
| Collybia cirrhata               | Russula sp.            | mummified basidiome                              | No sclerotia            |
| Cudoniella aciularis            | Quercus                | large decayed log                                |                         |
| Cystoderma amianthinum          |                        | grass/soil                                       |                         |
| Gloeophyllum sepiarium          | Pinus                  | large sun exposed dry log                        |                         |
| Hemimycena mauretana            | Pinus                  | woody debris, rotten log fragments               |                         |
| Hohenbuehelia sp.               |                        | growing on hymenium of Serpula                   | unable to ID to species |
| Hygrophoropsis aurantiaca       | Pinus                  | soil                                             |                         |
| Hygrophoropsis rufa             | Conifer                | rotten stump                                     |                         |
| Hyphodiscus hymeniophilus       | Phaeolus schweinitzii  | pore surface of decayed previous years fruitbody |                         |
| Hyphodontia alutaria            | Conifer                | decayed, decort log                              |                         |
| Hyphodontia pallidula           | Pinus                  | rotten log                                       |                         |
| Hypholoma elongatum             | Polytrichum moss       | soil                                             |                         |
| Inocybe napipes                 | Pinus                  | soil                                             |                         |
| Inocybe stellulata              | Betula/fagus/Pinus     | soil                                             | collected by Jonathan   |
| Laccaria amethystina            | Fagus                  | soil                                             |                         |
| Laccaria laccata                | Betula/Pinus           | soil                                             |                         |
| Laccaria proxima                | Betula/Pinus           | soil                                             |                         |
| Lactarius blennius              | Fagus                  | soil                                             |                         |
| Lactarius hepaticus             | Pinus                  | soil                                             |                         |
| Leptosporomyces septentrionalis | Conifer                | decort, rotten log                               | Herb: ARS               |
| Mucronella calva                | Conifer                | decort, rotten log                               |                         |
| Mycena galericulata             | Conifer                | rotten log                                       |                         |
| Mycena galopus                  | Pinus                  | soil/litter                                      |                         |
| Mycena pura                     | Pinus                  | soil                                             |                         |
| Mycena purpureofusca            | Pinus                  | bark, rotten log                                 |                         |
| Mycostilla vermiformis          | Conifer                | rotten log                                       |                         |
| Paullicorticium pearsonii       | Conifer                | rotten log fragment                              | Herb: ARS.              |

|                             |                       |                            |                           |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------|
| Peniophorella pallida       | Pinus                 | rotten log                 |                           |
| Peniophorella praetermissa  | Conifer               | decort, rotten log         |                           |
| Peniophorella pubera        | Conifer               | rotten log                 |                           |
| Phlebiella vaga             | Fagus                 | decort, rotten log         |                           |
| Pholiota mixta              | Betula/Pinus          | soil/buried wood           |                           |
| Physisporinus vitreus       | indet. decid.         | rotten log                 |                           |
| Pluteus cervinus            | Fagus                 | rotten log                 |                           |
| Pluteus pouzarianus         | Pinus                 | rotten fallen trunk        |                           |
| Psathyrella piluliformis    | Fagus                 | large decayed log          |                           |
| Pseudotomentella atrofusca  | Conifer               | rotten log fragment        | Herb: ARS.                |
| Rhodocollybia maculata      | Pinus                 | soil/litter                |                           |
| Rickenella fibula           | indet. decid.         | rotten mossy log           |                           |
| Sebacina cf. gloeophora     | Conifer               | decort, rotten log         | Herb: ARS.                |
| Serendipita orliensis       | Tubulicrinis accedens | intrahymenial              | Herb: ARS.                |
| Serpula himantoides         | Conifer               | rotten log                 |                           |
| Sistotrema octosporum       | Pinus                 | bark, detached, decayed    |                           |
| Skeletocutis carneogrisea   | Pinus                 | decayed fallen trunk       |                           |
| Stereum rugosum             | Fagus                 | bark, dead fallen branch   |                           |
| Subulicystidium longisporum | Fagus                 | rotten log                 |                           |
| Tomentellopsis pusilla      | indet.decid.          | rotten log fragment        | Herb: ARS.                |
| Trechispora minima          | Conifer               | rotten log fragment        |                           |
| Trichaptum abietinum        | Pinus                 | decayed fallen trunk       |                           |
| Tubulicrinis accedens       | Conifer               | rotten log                 | Herb: ARS.                |
| Tylospora fibrillosa        | Conifer               | litter/woody debris        |                           |
| Tulasnella eichleriana      | Fagus                 | decort, rotten log         |                           |
| Xylodon crustosus           | Conifer               | thin decayed fallen branch | collected by Andy Woodall |